
Cell values are the pooled percent change multiplied by the biomarker's aging direction, so a positive value is a shift toward a younger profile whether the marker should rise or fall. n/e, not estimable: fewer than two trials for that biomarker in that class. No biomarker pools within GLP−1 / GIP / GCG, so that column is empty throughout.